The York Regional Police Major Crime Unit is requesting the Public's assistance in the investigation into the homicide of 53 year old Ignazio DRAGO.

On Monday, January 20th, 1992, at 11:00 p.m., an unknown male suspect attended the DRAGO residence situated on Husband Drive, North York. He falsely identified himself as a Metropolitan Toronto Police Officer, and when advised the victim was not home, he returned approximately one hour later.

The suspect once again identified himself as a police officer and directed the victim to sit in the back of a 1980 Chevrolet Malibu, 4 door, blue, licence 974-NND. The suspect had stolen the vehicle and licence plate earlier.

The victim and the suspect left the area and the victim was found at 12:15 a.m. on January 21st, 1992, at the rear of an industrial unit situated at 4200 Steeles Avenue West, Vaughan. He had been shot several times and later succumbed to his injuries.

The suspect is described as male, white, 35-40 years, 5'10" - 5'11", 170-180lbs, husky build, dark eyebrows, dark hair, dark eyes, olive complexion, dark goatee beard, believed to be false, and moustache. He was wearing a blue nylon jacket with the words 'POLICE - 52 DIV' printed on the rear. He was also wearing a dark coloured toque.
