ABOUT THIS REPORT

IN THIS REPORT

This report contains a summary of crime statistics for York Regional Police pertaining to incidents reported during 2001. A one year and five year comparison is made. Miscellaneous statistics are also included.

HOW ARE CRIMES COUNTED?

The data in this report is based on accumulated to-date information. Therefore, the number of violations recorded may change due to late reporting, reclassification, and unfounded incidents.

York Regional Police publish crime statistics based on the number of reported violations (Incident-based Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR)). Incident-based UCR classifies incidents according to the four most serious violations in the incident (generally the violations which carry the longest maximum sentences under the Criminal Code of Canada). Violent incidents (except robbery) are classified differently from other types of crime. For violent crime, a separate incident is recorded for each victim. Robbery, however is the exception to this rule. Robbery can involve many people who could all be considered victims. An example would be if a bank robbery occurred with four tellers and ten customers present, fourteen robbery violations would be counted if the normal scoring rule was applied. This would seriously overstate the number of incidents. In categorizing incidents, violent violations always take precedence over non-violent violations.

MAKING COMPARISONS

All statistics in this report are compiled from Incident-based reporting. These statistics should not be compared with those provided by Statistics Canada which converts the data received to an Aggregate-based UCR format which measures only the most serious offence related to an incident. In addition, Statistics Canada include the number of offences reported by the Toronto North Detachment of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police with York Regional Police's crime statistics.

Statistics Canada data should be used for comparisons between policing jurisdictions because all data is converted to Aggregate-based reporting.

TERMINOLOGY

Actual totals include only those incidents for which an occurrence report was made and have been substantiated through police investigation.

Clearance rates are calculated by the number of violations cleared by charge or otherwise (persons processed by other means) divided by the number of violations. These violations may not necessarily have occurred during the reporting period but some time prior.

Crime rates are expressed as a rate per 100,000 population using mid year population estimates supplied by York Region Planning and Development Services Department and have been rounded to two decimals.

Criminal incident refers to a set of connected events which usually constitute an occurrence report. One incident can include more than one violation (offence).

Offence is defined as a statistical fact for Aggregate-based reporting. This terminology is not used in Incident-based reporting.

Violation refers to a contravention of the Criminal Code, Federal, or Provincial Statutes.

Young Offender refers to a person aged 12 - 17 years inclusive.

Youth refers to a person under the age of 18 years.

Youth crime refers to the number of youths charged or processed by other means.

TYPES OF VIOLATIONS: INCIDENT-BASED REPORTING

Crimes Against Persons are crimes involving aggressive action (with the intent to do harm) or threat of such action by one person against another. These include violations causing death, attempt capital crime, sexual assault, assault, robbery and other violent violations, and violations/deprivation of freedom.

Violations Causing Death include murder 1st degree, murder 2nd degree, manslaughter, infanticide, criminal negligence cause death, and other related offences causing death.

Attempt Capital Crime includes attempted murder and conspiracy to commit murder.

Sexual Assault includes aggravated sexual assault, sexual assault with a weapon or cause bodily harm, sexual assault, and other sexual crimes.

Assault includes aggravated assault, assault with a weapon or cause bodily harm, assault, unlawfully cause bodily harm, discharge firearm with intent, assault peace/public officer, criminal negligence cause bodily harm, and other assaults.

Robbery and Other Violent Violations include robbery, extortion, criminal harassment, uttering threats, explosives causing death/bodily harm, arson disregard for human life, and other violent violations.

Violations/Deprivation of Freedom includes kidnapping (forcible confinement), hostage taking, and abduction.

Crimes Against Property involve unlawful acts with respect to property but do not involve the use or threat of violence against an individual. These include arson, break and enter, theft, have stolen goods, fraud, and mischief.

Drug violations include violations under the Controlled Drugs and Substances Act and prior to May 14, 1997, the Narcotics Control Act and the Food and Drug Act. These violations comprise of possession, trafficking, importation or production of various illicit controlled and restricted drugs, and proceeds of crime.

Weapons violations include violations under the Criminal Code which involve any thing used, designed to be used or intended for use in causing death or injury to any person or used for the purpose of threatening or intimidating any person. These include possession, use, trafficking, pointing, unauthorized import/export, firearms documentation and administration, and unsafe storage.

Public Morals violations include prostitution, indecent acts, production/distribution of child pornography, gaming and betting, and public morals.

Other Criminal Code violations include the remaining non-traffic Criminal Code violations that are classified as neither violent nor property violations. These violations are divided into two parts:

Part A: includes bail violations, counterfeiting currency, disturb the peace, escape custody, obstruct, unlawfully at large, trespass at night, fail to appear, breach of probation, and threatening/harassing telephone calls.

Part B: includes offences against public order, offences against administration of law and justice, invasion of privacy, offences against the person and reputation, offences against the rights or property, fraudulent transactions/contracts and trade, wilful/forbidden acts/respect of certain property, offences related to currency, proceeds of crime, attempts/conspiracies/accessories, and all other criminal code.

Federal Statutes violations include violations under all other federal statutes. They include the Bankruptcy Act, Customs Act, Excise Act, Immigration Act, and the Young Offenders Act.

Traffic violations include all traffic violations under the Criminal Code. These include dangerous operation, impaired related violations, and other criminal traffic violations.

Other Criminal Traffic Violations include fail to stop or remain and drive while prohibited.

TYPES OF OFFENCES: AGGREGATE-BASED REPORTING

Crimes of Violence are crimes involving the use of aggressive action (with the intent to do harm) or threat of such action by one person against another. These include homicide, attempted murder, assault, other sexual offences, abduction, and robbery.

Homicide offences include murder 1st degree, murder 2nd degree, manslaughter, and infanticide.

Assault offences include sexual assault, sexual assault with a weapon or cause bodily harm, aggravated sexual assault, assault, assault with a weapon or cause bodily harm, aggravated assault, unlawfully cause bodily harm, discharge firearm with intent, assault police, assault other peace/public officer, and other assaults.

Abduction includes abduction of person under 14, abduction of person under 16, abduction contrary to custody order, and abduction no custody order.

Property Crimes involve unlawful acts with respect to property but do not involve the use or threat of violence against an individual. These include break and enter, theft of motor vehicle, theft over $5000, theft $5000 and under, have stolen goods, and fraud.

Other Criminal Code offences include the remaining non-traffic Criminal Code violations that are classified as neither violent nor property violations. These include arson, bail violations, counterfeit currency, disturb the peace, escape custody, indecent acts, kidnapping, public morals, obstruct police/peace officer, unlawfully at large, trespass at night, mischief, and other criminal code offences.

Other Crimes include prostitution, gaming and betting, offensive weapons, and other criminal code offences.

Drug offences include offences under the Controlled Drugs and Substances Act. These are comprised of possession, trafficking, and importation or production of various illicit controlled and restricted drugs.

Other Federal Statutes include offences under all other federal statutes. They include the Bankruptcy Act, Canada Shipping Act, Customs Act, Excise Act, Immigration Act, Young Offenders Act, and the Firearm Act.

CHANGES IN REPORTING METHODOLOGY

In January 1998, Statistics Canada made changes to the reporting methodology of Incident-based reporting. This included the addition of several new violations, uttering threats to person, proceeds of crime (Criminal Code), proceeds of crime (Controlled Drug and Substance Act), other violations causing death/bodily harm, removal of children from Canada, prostitution under 18 - living off the avails, prostitution under 18 - procuring, and production/distribution of child pornography. One of these violations, utter threats to person, had previously been included in the other criminal code violations category. This new violation is now included in the robbery and other violent violations category. This should be taken into consideration when making five year comparisons of robbery and other violent violations, crimes against persons, and other criminal code data.

In March 2000, new criminal code sections pertaining to evade police were passed into law. To correspond with this, Statistics Canada implemented new violation codes relating to these Criminal Code sections. These violation codes fall under the dangerous operation category. Due to this implementation part way through the year, caution must be used when making one or five year comparisons of criminal code traffic violations, in particular dangerous operation violations.

NATIONAL/PROVINCIAL COMPARISONS

Statistics Canada information is used with the permission of the Minister of Industry, as Minister responsible for Statistics Canada.
