ABOUT THIS REPORT

IN THIS REPORT

This report contains a summary of crime statistics for York Regional Police pertaining to incidents reported between January 1st and December 31st, 2003. A one year and five year comparison is made. Miscellaneous statistics are also included.

HOW ARE CRIMES COUNTED?

The data in this report is based on accumulated to-date information. Therefore, the number of violations recorded may change due to late reporting, reclassification, and unfounded incidents.

York Regional Police publish crime statistics based on the number of reported violations (Incident-based Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR)). Incident-based UCR classifies incidents according to the four most serious violations in the incident (generally the violations which carry the longest maximum sentences under the Criminal Code of Canada). Violent incidents (except robbery) are classified differently from other types of crime. For violent crime, a separate incident is recorded for each victim. Robbery, however is counted as if it were a non-violent crime in order to avoid inflating the number of incidents. In categorizing incidents, violent violations always take precedence over non-violent violations.

MAKING COMPARISONS

Unless otherwise noted, all statistics in this report are compiled from Incident-based reporting. These statistics should not be compared with those provided by Statistics Canada who converts the data received to an Aggregate-based UCR format which measures only the most serious offence related to an incident. In addition, Statistics Canada include the number of offences reported by the Toronto North Detachment of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police with York Regional Police's crime statistics.

Statistics Canada data should be used for comparisons between policing jurisdictions because all data is converted to Aggregate-based reporting.

TERMINOLOGY

Actual totals include only those incidents for which an occurrence report was made and have been substantiated through police investigation.

Clearance rates are calculated by the number of violations cleared by charge or otherwise (persons processed by other means) divided by the number of violations. These violations may not necessarily have occurred during the reporting period but some time prior.

Crime rates are expressed as a rate per 100,000 population using mid-year population estimates supplied by York Region Planning and Development Services Department and have been rounded to two decimals.

Criminal incident refers to a set of connected events which usually constitute an occurrence report. One incident can include more than one violation.

Offence is defined as a statistical fact for Aggregate-based reporting. This terminology is not used in Incident-based reporting.

Violation refers to a contravention of the Criminal Code, Federal, or Provincial Statutes.

Young Offender refers to a person aged 12 - 17 years inclusive (Young Offenders Act).

Young Person refers to a person aged 12 - 17 years inclusive (Youth Criminal Justice Act).

Youth refers to a person under the age of 18 years.

Youth crime refers to the number of youths charged or processed by other means for committing a criminal offence.

TYPES OF VIOLATIONS: INCIDENT-BASED REPORTING

Crimes Against Persons are crimes involving aggressive action (with the intent to do harm) or threat of such action by one person against another. These include violations causing death, attempt capital crime, sexual assault, assault, robbery and other violent violations, and violations/deprivation of freedom.

Violations Causing Death include murder 1st degree, murder 2nd degree, manslaughter, infanticide, criminal negligence cause death, and other related offences causing death.

Attempt Capital Crime violations include attempted murder and conspiracy to commit murder.

Sexual Assault violations include aggravated sexual assault, sexual assault with a weapon or cause bodily harm, sexual assault, and other sexual crimes.

Assault violations include aggravated assault, assault with a weapon or cause bodily harm, assault, unlawfully cause bodily harm, discharge firearm with intent, assault peace/public officer, criminal negligence cause bodily harm, and other assaults.

Robbery and Other Violent Violations include robbery, extortion, criminal harassment, uttering threats, explosives causing death/bodily harm, arson disregard for human life, and other violent violations.

Violations/Deprivation of Freedom include kidnapping (forcible confinement), hostage taking, and abduction.

Crimes Against Property involve unlawful acts with respect to property but do not involve the use or threat of violence against an individual. These include arson, break and enter, theft, have stolen goods, fraud, and mischief.

Drug violations include violations under the Controlled Drugs and Substances Act and the Food and Drug Act. These violations are comprised of possession, trafficking, importation or production of various illicit controlled and restricted drugs, and proceeds of crime.

Weapons violations include violations under the Criminal Code which involve any thing used, designed to be used or intended for use in causing death or injury to any person or used for the purpose of threatening or intimidating any person. These include possession, use, trafficking, pointing, unauthorized import/export, firearms documentation and administration, and unsafe storage.

Public Morals violations include prostitution, indecent acts, production/distribution of child pornography, gaming and betting, and public morals.

Other Criminal Code violations include the remaining non-traffic Criminal Code violations that are classified as neither violent nor property violations. These violations are divided into two parts:

Part A: include bail violations, counterfeiting currency, disturb the peace, escape custody, luring a child via computer, obstruct, unlawfully at large, trespass at night, fail to appear, breach of probation, and threatening/harassing telephone calls.

Part B: include offences against public order, offences relating to terrorist activity, offences against administration of law and justice, invasion of privacy, offences against the person and reputation, offences against the rights or property, fraudulent transactions/contracts and trade, intimidation of justice system participant, wilful/forbidden acts/respect of certain property, offences related to currency, proceeds of crime, attempts/conspiracies/accessories, offences relating to criminal organization, and all other criminal code.

Federal Statutes violations include violations under all other federal statutes. They include the Bankruptcy Act, Income Tax Act, Canada Shipping Act, Public Health Act, Customs Act, Competition Act, Excise Act, Immigration Act, Firearms Act, National Defence Act, Young Offenders Act, Youth Criminal Justice Act, and Other Federal Statutes.

Traffic violations include all traffic violations under the Criminal Code. These include dangerous operation, evade police, impaired related violations, and other criminal traffic violations.

Other Criminal Traffic violations include fail to stop or remain and drive while prohibited.

TYPES OF VIOLATIONS: AGGREGATE-BASED REPORTING

Crimes of Violence are crimes involving the use of aggressive action (with the intent to do harm) or threat of such action by one person against another. These include homicide, attempted murder, assault, other sexual offences, abduction, and robbery.

Homicide offences include murder 1st degree, murder 2nd degree, manslaughter, and infanticide.

Assault offences include sexual assault, sexual assault with a weapon or cause bodily harm, aggravated sexual assault, assault, assault with a weapon or cause bodily harm, aggravated assault, unlawfully cause bodily harm, discharge firearm with intent, assault police, assault other peace/public officer, and other assaults.

Abduction offences include abduction of person under 14, abduction of person under 16, abduction contrary to custody order, and abduction no custody order.

Property Crimes involve unlawful acts with respect to property but do not involve the use or threat of violence against an individual. These include break and enter, theft of motor vehicle, theft over $5000, theft $5000 and under, have stolen goods, and fraud.

Other Criminal Code offences include the remaining non-traffic Criminal Code violations that are classified as neither violent nor property violations. These include arson, bail violations, counterfeit currency, disturb the peace, escape custody, indecent acts, kidnapping, public morals, obstruct police/peace officer, unlawfully at large, trespass at night, mischief, and other criminal code offences.

Other Crimes include prostitution, gaming and betting, offensive weapons, and other criminal code offences.

Drug offences include offences under the Controlled Drugs and Substances Act. These are comprised of possession, trafficking, and importation or production of various illicit controlled and restricted drugs.

Other Federal Statutes include offences under all other federal statutes. They include the Bankruptcy Act, Canada Shipping Act, Customs Act, Excise Act, Immigration Act, Young Offenders Act, Youth Criminal Justice Act, and the Firearm Act.

CHANGES IN REPORTING METHODOLOGY

In March 2000, Bill C-202 received royal assent amending the Criminal Code by making it an offence to operate a motor vehicle while being pursued by a peace officer in order to evade the peace officer and fail to stop the vehicle as soon as it is reasonable in the circumstances. To correspond with this, Statistics Canada implemented violation codes relating to these criminal code sections. These violation codes fall under the dangerous operation category. This must be considered when making five year comparisons of criminal code traffic violations.

In December 2001, Bill C-24 received royal assent amending the Criminal Code by introducing three new offences to fight organized crime. To correspond with this, Statistics Canada implemented violation codes relating to organized crime. These violations are included in the “Other Criminal Code (Part B)” category.

In December 2001, Bill C-36 received royal assent amending the Criminal Code, the Proceeds of Crime (money laundering) Act, and a number of other Acts, in order to combat terrorism. To correspond with this, Statistics Canada implemented new violation codes relating to terrorist activity. These violations are included in the “Other Criminal Code (Part B)” category.

On January 1, 2002, a change was implemented to include motor vehicle collisions when a party left the scene of the accident, but was not apprehended, as a criminal code violation. This only includes collisions which constitute an offence contrary to the Criminal Code. This change of reporting methodology is in accordance with other police services’ practices.

A review of the way York Regional Police deploy its front-line resources began in 1999. A more comprehensive study was undertaken in 2000. The Restructuring Front-Line Service Delivery Study with recommendations was submitted to the Police Services Board and given approval in October 2001. One of the recommendations in the study was to re-align the district and beat boundaries. The purpose of changing the geographic beat locations was to distribute workload levels more efficiently between reactive, administrative, and proactive duties. The changes in beat boundaries also allow for a more effective response to emergency calls for service and enables ownership of an area by patrol units. On March 3, 2002, the changes to the district boundaries were implemented. Although this does not impact regional statistics, it must be considered when comparing district statistics from 2002 and 2003.

Beginning in 2002, all police services in Canada began sending incidents of impaired driving where a road-side suspension was issued by police (rather than laying a charge) to drivers found to have a blood-alcohol reading at or slightly above the legal limit. These violations were not counted as criminal code offences prior to 2002.

The delivery of 9-1-1 service to the residents of York Region began in 1994 with a Bell Canada operator in Ottawa answering all calls to 9-1-1 from within York Region. The calls would then be transferred to an appropriate emergency response agency within York Region. In April 2001, an application was made by Bell Canada to the Canadian Radio and Telecommunications Commission (CRTC) to withdraw this service. In June 2001, Regional Council authorized Regional staff to directly provide 9-1-1 emergency in conjunction with York Regional Police. On April 2, 2002, 9-1-1 call answering was transferred to the Region of York from Bell Canada with York Regional Police as the first point of reception for 9-1-1 calls.

In June 2002, Bill C-15A, an act to amend the Criminal Code with respect to the sexual exploitation of children on the internet, received royal assent. The new amendments make it an offence to communicate with children via a computer system for the purpose of facilitating or committing certain sexual offences, such as child luring or abduction. To correspond with this, Statistics Canada implemented a violation code which is included in the “Other Criminal Code (Part A)” category.

On April 1, 2003, the Youth Criminal Justice Act (YCJA) came into force, repealing and replacing the Young Offenders Act.

On May 16, 2003, Mr. Justice Rogin of the Superior Court of Ontario released his judgment in the matter of R. v. J.P. and held that section 4(1) of the Controlled Drug and Substances Act (simple possession), as it applied to marihuana only, was invalid. Due to this ruling, police were thereafter unable to lay charges relating to simple possession of marihuana. On October 7, 2003, the Court of Appeal ruled that “the prohibition against possession of marihuana in s. 4 is in force” from that date forward.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

- 266,793 DEMANDS FOR SERVICE were received in 2003 compared to 242,278 during the corresponding period in 2002. This represents an increase of 24,515 demands or 10.1%. Based on the rate of Demands for Service per 100,000 population, there has been an increase of 6.9%. In April 2002, responsibility for answering 9-1-1 calls was transferred from Bell Canada to the Region of York. The increase can be partially attributed to this change.
- 6,491 CRIMES AGAINST PERSONS (violent crime) violations were reported between January 1st and December 31st, 2003 compared to 6,853 during the corresponding period in 2002. This represents a decrease of 362 violations or 5.3%. The violent crime rate in 2003 was 770.90 compared to 838.43 during the corresponding period in 2002. This represents a decrease of 8.1%.
- 13 VIOLATIONS CAUSING DEATH were reported in 2003 compared to 13 during the corresponding period in 2002. This represents no change. Based on the rate of Violations Causing Death per 100,000 population, there has been a decrease of 2.9%.

Adapted from the Statistics Canada web site <http://ccjcsj.statcan.ca>.

Rates are calculated on the basis of 100,000 population using July 1 population estimates, and rounded to two decimals. Population estimates used were provided by the Demography Division of Statistics Canada based on usual place of residence.

Counts for all responses include RCMP cases occurring within the respondent's jurisdiction.

Statistics are compiled based on aggregate reporting.

Adapted from the Statistics Canada web site <http://cejsccsj.statcan.ca>.

Rates are calculated on the basis of 100,000 population using July 1 population estimates, and rounded to two decimals. Population estimates used were provided by the Demography Division of Statistics Canada based on usual place of residence.

Counts for all responses include RCMP cases occurring within the respondent's jurisdiction.

Statistics are compiled based on aggregate reporting.
