exhibition, promotion, and education as further set out in the Contest Release and Application Form. Winning entries may be placed on the YRP website, social media accounts managed by YRP and may be screened on televised broadcasts.

6. Voting and Judging

- 1) The Finalists will be judged and graded by a panel of three or more judges who sit as members on the York Regional Police Community Advisory Council. Judges may include YRP staff and members of the Board who are not acquainted with the Contestants.
- 2) Only judges can assign points to the submissions.
- 3) The odds of being selected for any of the three available prizes depends on the number and caliber of eligible submissions received.
- 4) In case of a tie, the Contestant scoring the largest number of points in category 1 (Relevance and clarity of theme) will be declared the winner. If a tie still exists, each succeeding category is considered a tiebreaker. Should a tie still exist through category 4, the tied submissions will be re-evaluated by the judges and judged a second time.

7. Scoring

- 1) The Judges will score the Finalists based on the following criteria out of a total of 50 points. Categories to be judged are:
 - a. Relevance and clarity of the theme: 20 points
 - b. Creativity and originality: 10 points
 - c. Technical merit: 10 points
 - d. Artistic impact: 10 points

8. Prizes

1. One winning entry from each grade (Gr 7-12) will be recognized at the YRP's International Day of Elimination of Racial Discrimination event by members of YRP and PCAC. The ranking of the posters will be determined by the point allocation assigned by the judges, with the poster allocated the most points earning the First-Place prize for each grade.

2. The winners will be announced at the YRP's International Day of Elimination of Racial Discrimination event hosted on Sunday, April 19th 2020 at York Regional Police Community Safety Village. The submissions may also be featured on YRP social media accounts, website, in print and other media as determined by YRP.
3. The winners will be informed April 3, 2020.
4. Not all grades will be recognized if a poster is not submitted for that specific grade.

9. Privacy Statement

YRP recognizes its responsibility to protect the personal information of Contestants. In brief, "personal information" is information that can be uniquely identify an individual, such as a full name, address, email address and phone number for the purposes of entry into the Contest. This Privacy Statement applies to individuals who deal with YRP in relation to the Contest in Canada and to all personal information that is collected for the purposes of the Contest. YRP does not control the content or the privacy policies of third-party online resources to which our websites may provide links or on social media platforms and this Privacy Statement does not, therefore, apply to any such resources. By participating in this Contest, each Contestant (and his or her Parent or Legal Guardian where the Contestant is under the age of 18) consents to their personal information being collected, stored, used and disclosed by the Contest Sponsors only for the identified purpose.

1. ACCOUNTABILITY - At YRP, accountability for compliance with the privacy principles rests with our Chief Privacy Officer, even though other individuals within YRP or our agents may be responsible for the day-to-day collection and processing of personal information about you for the purposes of conducting the Contest. Information collected for the purposes of the Contest will be handled in accordance with the Municipal Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act.
2. IDENTIFYING PURPOSES - YRP is collecting personal information in this instance solely for purposes related to the Contest, including its prizes.
3. LIMITING COLLECTION YRP will limit the collection and use of both the amount and the type of personal information to that which is necessary for the identified purposes, for the management and oversight of the data collection, to ensure compliance with this privacy policy as it applies to the Contest and to preserve the integrity of the Contest database, or to comply with applicable laws and/or regulations, and any such information will be obtained only by lawful and fair means.
